

Staff photos by LAFONZO RACHEL CARTER

On course for landing

Pilot Jeff Ying of Glendora, left, had to make a pit stop Saturday morning as he was flying his World War I British biplane from Redlands to an antique airshow at Brackett Field in La Verne. He landed his plane at Shandin Hills Golf Club in San Bernardino, saying that something was wrong with the gas line. He was not injured.

